

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE C-7

NEW YORK DAILY NEWS
18 October 1984

NATION

Yalies score CIA

New Haven, Conn.—Students, concerned about CIA activities in Central America, protested the agency's recruitment efforts on the campus of Yale University.

"An organization that violates international law and commits murder has no place on any college campus or any place else for that matter," said senior Aliso Beaver, one of the 40 students who marched Tuesday outside the University Career Services building where CIA recruiters were interviewing students.